Introducing Kurdistan: Cultural Diplomacy and Community Engagement in Denver

Report on Activities – Kurdish American Group

As part of our ongoing mission to advocate for the Kurdish national cause and introduce Kurdistan to American society, the Kurdish American Group organized two key events in collaboration with the Aurora Gateway Rotary Club in Denver. These initiatives aimed to foster cross-cultural understanding and build alliances through engagement with international civic organizations such as the Rotary Club.

Event Date: May 2nd, 2025

Location: Denver, Colorado

Partner Organization: Aurora Gateway Rotary Club

Morning Session – Cultural & Political Presentation:

The day began with an educational presentation highlighting Kurdish culture, geography, history, and language. The presentation also addressed political and territorial developments affecting Kurdistan and the broader Middle East. The session concluded with a Q&A focused on the Kurdish national question, during which I provided insights based on years of personal knowledge and advocacy. Participants expressed strong interest in continued .educational engagement on related topics

Evening Session – Cultural Exchange Event:

The evening event offered attendees the opportunity to experience Kurdish culture through traditional food, music, and clothing. This interactive session created a welcoming space for dialogue, cultural appreciation, and relationship-building. Several new connections were established with .individuals and organizations interested in future collaboration

Note:

These activities represent a core component of the Kurdish American Group's broader mission to promote Kurdish identity, history, and culture while building bridges with global communities through public engagement and .educational outreach
